

Francisco Mateo

Full-stack Web & Software Developer

University of Wisconsin Parkside

Bachelor of Science in Computer Science

Minor in Web Development

Unix System Administration Certificate

President Computer Science Club

September 2011 - May 2017

Best Student Paper Award

Midwest Instruction and Computing Symposium (MICS)

Developed an Android app and a PHP based RESTful API for predicting the availability of a professor based on Bayesian inference. Published paper: <https://goo.gl/bq867i>

April 2015

- Organized, constructive team member.
- Teamwork eagerness, great attitude
- Agile driven development.
- Attentive to details.
- Great communication & time management skills.
- Highly skilled in modern front-end tools.

Racine Community Action Agency

Node.js / Express / Firebase

Developed a web app for admins to perform CRUD operations for events and farmer markets; All data persisted to firebase real time database for mobile apps to consume; Ability to send push notifications to mobile apps.

March 2017 - Current

Bradley Corp.

Grails / Tomcat

Developed a web app. for auditors to survey locations for ANSI standards; RESTful API development for data synchronization between iOS & Android apps.

June 2016 - February 2017

Bradley Corp.

Grails / Tomcat

Designed and developed a web app. to manage image assets for Bradley's sales team; Developed a RESTful API for iOS & Android apps.

September 2015 - June 2016

UW-Parkside App Factory

Full-stack Web Developer / Node.js / Laravel / Grails

Design and develop all things web related in various technologies; Aid team members in all web; Agile driven software development environment; Mentor

October 2015 - Current

